Who Should Attend:

Any civilian Army employee who attends the prerequisite workshop, Basics of Army Writing, February 16, 2005, & has a need to further develop his/her writing skills.

Course Description:

This second session focuses on the step-by-step process used to produce a sound paper that clearly and succinctly fulfills the task and meets the suspense. Learn examination methods & practical exercises (including assessment tools) that participants can use to instruct others on the basics of Army writing.

Topics include:

- Clearly stating the bottom line (the thesis for a paper);
- Developing ideas to support the bottom line;
- Developing an organization pattern for the paper & conducting research;
- Preparing, reviewing, revising the first draft; and
- Proofing the final draft

Note: Prerequisite for attendance is the Basics of Army Writing Course, 2/16/05.

Registration Information:

Registration Deadline: February 1, 2005

Follow your organization's procedures for securing approval to attend this program. Those outside the USASOC organization must submit a completed payment authorization sheet for the tuition amount to the course manager by the registration deadline.
